ABOUT WDC

Bennette E. Misalucha
Executive Director

“Far and away the best prize that life has to offer is the chance to work hard at work worth doing.”

Pres. Theodore Roosevelt

Why the Work We Do Matters

Definitions of “Workforce Development”

- Workforce development connects young people and adults with education, training and jobs.
- It is designed to help people develop the skills they need to enter the workforce in a high-growth, high-demand occupation as quickly as possible.
- The aim of workforce development is to foster prosperity for individuals, communities, and businesses.

History of WDC

- Congress passed Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 (WIOA) by wide bipartisan majority. First legislative reform of the public workforce system in over 15 years.
- WIOA replaces Workforce Investment Act of 1998, amends Adult Education and Family Literacy Act, Wagner-Peyser Act, and Rehabilitation Act of 1973.
- WIOA refocused the work of WDC.

About WDC

- Advises the Governor and Legislature on workforce development to support economic development and employment opportunities for employers and employees.
- Spearheads the process for State to develop and update comprehensive, strategic workforce development plans

Strategic Functions of WDC

- Convenor
- Workforce Analyst
- Broker
- Community Voice
- Capacity Builder

WDC BOARD COMPOSITION

- WDC Board was reconstituted from 31 to 41 members under WIOA.
 - 21 Private Business Sector
 - 8 Workforce and Labor Sectors
 - 2 Legislature House and Senate)
 - 10 Ex-Officios (Governor, Mayors, Department Heads, DOE, UH)
